

Jessie Douglas

Word was received from Loren Douglas of Sacramento, Calif., informing the staff of the death of his mother, Mrs. Jessie Douglas, 85, one of South Dakota's pioneers. She passed away Nov. 19 in Sacramento, Calif.

Mrs. Douglas was born July 9, 1886, at Groton to Olive Curry Keiser and William Keiser. She was a sister of Florence, Mary and Dick Keiser.

The family moved from South Dakota to Long Beach, Calif., and later to Sacramento and had been a resident there since 1922. She was a subscriber to the Groton Independent for many, many years.

She was a charter member of the ElCamino chapter of the Eastern Star and had her family present when she was presented her fifty-year pin. She was active in many phases of the work in the Rio Linda Methodist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Loren and Thomas, five grandchildren and five great grandchildren.
